Service Will Remain BJP's Guiding Principle Modi

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said that from Gujarat to Delhi, service has always been the guiding principle of the BJP's governance and values, and the party will never deviate from the path of service.Modi made the remarks during a video conference with participants of the Seva Sankalp Yatra, which is being taken out from Vadnagar in Gujarat to Varanasi in Uttar Pradesh. The yatra, involving youth from different states, is being organised to mark Modi's 76th birthday and 25 years of his public life as an elected representative. The participants are currently in Madhya Pradesh's Dewas district.

PM Modi said, "From Gujarat to Delhi, service has been the core of our governance and values. When service is at the heart of governance, the resolve of 'Nagarik Devo Bhava' (Citizen is God) is at the heart of every policy." "Our conduct should show that no matter how much power we gain in politics, our fundamental path will remain service. We will never deviate from it, no matter how high we reach," he asserted. Modi emphasised that people remember work done in the spirit of service and bless those who serve. "My entire life has been sustained by people's blessings. Their blessings have been my greatest source of energy," he said.

Addressing the Seva Yatra participants, Modi urged them to make service their primary mission. "You must spread the message of service through your actions, you don't have to preach service. We will convey the message of service not through words, but by service," he said. "Serve people and let your conduct itself deliver the message of service. Seva Paramo Dharmah - service is the highest religion - we will move forward with this spirit," he added During the interaction, a participant said that inspired by Modi, a village in Jhabua district of Madhya Pradesh has been named 'Modi Phalia'. The entire Gen Z generation stands in support of Modi, he added.

Supreme Court upholds Danam Nagender's disqualification as MLA

Hyderabad: The Supreme Court on Thursday dismissed former Khairatabad MLA Danam Nagender's petition challenging the Telangana High Court judgment disqualifying him from the Assembly under the Tenth Schedule for defection from the BRS to the Congress. Politics A bench comprising Chief Justice of India Surya Kant, Justice Joymalya Bagchi and Justice V Mohana held that the High Court had correctly interpreted the law and that there was no ground for interference. Senior Advocate Mukul Rohatgi, appearing for Nagender, argued that the Tenth Schedule contained a provision to condone a member giving up party membership. "Ghar Wapsi?" Justice Bagchi commented.City & Local Guides When Rohatgi referred to Paragraph 2(1)(b), the bench pointed out that it applied to voting against the party whip and not to Paragraph 2(1)(a), which dealt with voluntarily giving up party membership. The BRS counsel denied that the party had condoned Nagender's conduct and said it was the BRS member who had filed the disqualification petition. The bench subsequently declined to interfere with the High Court judgment. Nagender won the Khairatabad Assembly seat on a BRS ticket in the 2023 Assembly elections, later defected to the ruling Congress and contested the 2024 Lok Sabha elections from Secunderabad on a Congress ticket while remaining an MLA.

Iran, US hold fresh talks in New York Tehran sets conditions for diplomacy

The war between the US and Iran entered its 208th day on Thursday as the two sides continue to claim that they are ready for talks. Iran's President Masoud Pezeshkian has said that Tehran is "ready for dialogue, diplomacy, and negotiations but insisted that the Islamic Republic won't accept the "language of force". US President Donald Trump, in his UNGA address, said that he may "annihilate" the Islamic Republic if a deal isn't reached soon to end the nearly seven-month war. US Secretary of State Marco Rubio said a deal with Iran would involve hard work and that Trump "has a number of options available, including military options".

US sanctions hit Iranian flights The US has also said it will impose so-called secondary sanctions against any country that allows Iranian flights after Wednesday. Mohsen Rezaei, secretary of Iran's Supreme National Security Council, told state TV that Iran would ensure neigh bouring countries' airports could not function if they stop Iranian flights.

Iranian and US officials held their first known indirect talks on Tuesday since a ceasefire collapsed in July, with Iran's Foreign Minister Abbas Araqchi and US envoys Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner communicating through mediators. Iranian Foreign Ministry spokesperson Esmail Baghaei said Tehran had conveyed conditions during a two-hour exchange of messages with Washington via a Qatari mediator. These included an end to the war on all fronts, a halt to US "acts of aggression" and the release of frozen Iranian assets.
